

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

ELVIS RENTERIA CAMILO LOPEZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

DONALD SWIFT,
JESUS ALVAREZ,
JORGE GARCIA, and
CAROLYN HARRIS,

Defendants.

NO: 12-CV-5099-TOR

FINDINGS OF FACT AND
CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A bench trial was held in this matter on March 23, 2015. Plaintiff was represented by Mitch Harrison. Defendants were represented by Ryan J. Lukson. At the close of Plaintiff's case-in-chief, Defendants made an oral motion for judgment on partial findings pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52(c). The Court granted the motion. This order supplements the Court's oral ruling.

//

//

BACKGROUND

Plaintiff, acting pro se, filed his original complaint in this matter in July 2012. ECF No. 1. A third amended complaint was filed in March 2014. ECF No. 96. On July 1, 2014, the Court denied Plaintiff's motion for summary judgment. ECF No. 121. On September 16, 2014, the Court denied in part and granted in part Defendants' motion for summary judgment. ECF No. 145. In that order, the Court ruled that Plaintiffs' allegations that Defendants Swift, Garcia, Alvarez, and Corporal Harris provided him with razor blades, or conspired to conceal such an action, were not appropriate for resolution on summary judgment and would proceed to trial. Id. at 2–6. Plaintiff's counsel filed a notice of appearance on December 1, 2014. ECF No. 163. The case proceeded to a bench trial which was held on March 23, 2015. ECF No. 178. At the trial, Plaintiff testified on his own behalf. Plaintiff offered no other evidence before closing his case-in-chief. Defendants moved for judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52(c). The Court granted the motion.

STANDARD

During a bench trial, “[i]f a party has been fully heard on an issue . . . and the court finds against the party on that issue, the court may enter judgment against the party on a claim or defense that, under the controlling law, can be maintained or defeated only with a favorable finding on that issue.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 52(c). The

1 Court's judgment "must be supported by findings of fact and conclusions of law as 2 required by Rule 52(a)." Id. "In deciding whether to enter judgment on partial 3 findings under Rule 52(c), the district court is not required to draw any inferences 4 in favor of the non-moving party; rather, the district court may make findings in 5 accordance with its own view of the evidence." Ritchie v. United States, 451 F.3d 6 1019, 1023 (9th Cir. 2006).

7 FINDINGS OF FACT

8 Plaintiff was the only witness to offer testimony at the bench trial. No 9 evidence was offered beyond his testimony. Plaintiff has suffered from mental 10 health issues since he was young. He has also struggled with alcoholism. On the 11 morning of April 13, 2010, Plaintiff had an argument with his girlfriend and began 12 drinking. At some point that morning, Plaintiff blacked out and awoke later in 13 Benton County jail.<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff learned from filings in a criminal case that he had 14 been "rampaging" about, stating that he would kill himself. At the time of 15 Plaintiff's booking he executed a mental health screening report that indicated he 16 has never been suicidal.

17 On April 15, 2010, Plaintiff obtained a razor blade by removing it from a 18

---

19 <sup>1</sup> All Plaintiff's allegations arise during the two and one half years he was being 20 held in pretrial detention for certain unspecified charges.

1 standard-issue razor provided to him by the jail and used it to cut his wrists.<sup>2</sup>

2 Plaintiff was taken to the hospital and later returned to the jail. Plaintiff began to 3 see a mental health specialist at the jail and to receive medication for his 4 depression and anxiety. Plaintiff testified that he variously experienced 5 hallucinations of visual colors, seeing shadows and hearing voices, muttering or 6 low tone whispering. Plaintiff testified that he believed his medications caused 7 various side effects, made him tired, he had trouble keeping track of time, he was 8 laying down all the time and at other times he was sleep deprived. He testified that 9 at times he was so heavily medicated that he was in a cloud and at other times he 10 quit his medication all together.

11 On October 23, 2010, Plaintiff obtained an altered razor blade from a fellow 12 inmate. He used that razor blade to cut his left wrist. Plaintiff was again taken to 13 the hospital. After returning to the jail, Plaintiff was placed on suicide watch in a 14 padded cell behind the jail's intake booking area. Prior to being placed in the cell, 15 Plaintiff was checked for contraband. The area behind the intake desk was a 16 secure area not accessible by other inmates, except those who bring meals or clean

17 _____
18 <sup>2</sup> Inexplicably and somewhat inconsistent with Plaintiff's allegations, Plaintiff 19 testified that he was given access to razor blades throughout the entire time he 20 stayed in the Benton County jail.

1 under the supervision of jail security staff. The cell had a small opening under the 2 door of less than an inch. The only items Plaintiff took into the cell with him were 3 his clothing and a blanket.

4 On October 25, 2010, Plaintiff discovered a razor blade which someone had 5 slid beneath the door to the cell. Plaintiff used it to cut his right wrist. After a 6 time, Defendant Garcia and another officer came into the room and asked Plaintiff 7 what had happened and where he had obtained the razor blade. Plaintiff 8 responded, "You know, you guys should know." After Plaintiff was bandaged, he 9 was left with Defendants Garcia and Alvarez. Garcia was looking at Plaintiff and 10 appeared as if he was about to say something when Alvarez said to Garcia in 11 Spanish, "Don't say nothing." Defendant Harris then allegedly came in and told 12 Garcia and Alvarez, "Don't worry, I got your back, you know what I'm saying."

13 Present in the area of the padded cell that day were Defendants Alvarez, 14 Garcia, and Harris, along with a couple of other guards Plaintiff did not know and 15 who are not named defendants in this matter. Plaintiff did not see who slide the 16 razor blade under the door. Plaintiff also did not hear anything to indicate who 17 may have done so. Plaintiff testified he "suspected" the blade was placed there by 18 Benton County guard staff "because of the things that were said, you know, from 19 the officers."
20

1 Plaintiff testified that he did not believe an investigation of the incident was 2 undertaken at any time. He did not recall any Benton County staff collecting 3 evidence. He saw a small red bag he identified as a hazard bag that caused 4 Plaintiff to believe the staff was disposing of evidence at that time instead of 5 preserving it. He only learned at a later point that pictures had actually been taken.
6 No records of the October 25 event or of any subsequent investigation were 7 introduced as evidence.

8 While in Benton County jail, Plaintiff filed numerous grievances. He filed 9 at least two grievances prior to the October 25, 2010 incident. Thus, Plaintiff was 10 aware of and knew how to use the grievance system by October 2010. However, 11 Plaintiff did not file a grievance regarding the October 25 incident until May 24, 12 2011, over six months after his suicide attempt.

13 Plaintiff testified further that on a couple of occasions, Defendant Swift 14 encouraged Plaintiff to commit suicide. According to Plaintiff, in August 2010, 15 Plaintiff was walking by a guard station when Swift said something to get 16 Plaintiff's attention. Swift then told Plaintiff, "Personally, I don't care if you kill 17 yourself," and, "If I were to kill myself, I would cut my jugular . . . like this," at 18 which point Swift drew his finger across his neck. At the time, Plaintiff thought 19 Swift was joking, but looking back on it he does not think it was funny. In January 20 2011, Plaintiff purchased items from the jail store that were delivered to his cell.

1 Plaintiff testified that Swift told Plaintiff, in the presence of the woman distributing 2 the items, "I don't care if [Plaintiff] kills himself, I don't have to worry about it, I 3 can just go home."

4 Plaintiff also alleged that Swift had supplied Plaintiff with razor blades on 5 two occasions. On May 26, 2011, Plaintiff was in between sleep and being awake 6 when he heard someone kick his cell door. Plaintiff did not see who it was because 7 he was facing the wall of his cell. A razor had been slipped under Plaintiff's door.
8 Plaintiff got up and saw Swift walking on the other side of the cell block. All 9 inmates were locked down at that time. After a while, Swift came over to 10 Plaintiff's cell. Plaintiff told him that he wanted to speak with a sergeant. Swift 11 asked Plaintiff why he needed to speak with the sergeant. Swift returned later with 12 a nurse who was distributing medication. Plaintiff gave the razor blade he had 13 discovered to the nurse.

14 On March 6, 2012, Plaintiff was sleeping when his cellmate woke him for 15 dinner. Plaintiff claimed her was the last one to leave his cell and the first to 16 return. Plaintiff saw Swift and another officer were on the cell block. Plaintiff saw 17 Swift walk along his side of the tier, pushing doors open as if he were looking for 18 something. Plaintiff found it odd that after Swift passed his door, "he just went 19 through all the other tiers normal." Plaintiff testified he was the first inmate to 20 return to his cell, at which point he discovered a razor on the floor. Plaintiff did

1 not see Swift place a razor blade in his cell. Plaintiff concluded that Swift must 2 have placed the razor in his cell based upon Swift's previous comments 3 encouraging Plaintiff's suicide.

4 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

5 To succeed on his § 1983 "deliberate indifference" claims, Plaintiff must 6 prove by a preponderance of the evidence that (1) the Defendants were 7 subjectively aware of a substantial risk of serious harm to Plaintiff and (2) the 8 Defendants did not act reasonably to abate that risk. Farmer v. Brennan, 511 U.S.
9 825, 847 (1994).<sup>3</sup> In the circumstances of this case, Plaintiff has alleged that the 10 Defendants acted unreasonably by providing him with razor blades in face of the 11 substantial risk that he would use them in an attempt to kill himself. Specifically, 12 the Court reviews the evidence of three instances where razor blades were 13 allegedly provided: October 25, 2010; May 26, 2011; and March 6, 2012. The 14 Court also reviews Plaintiff's evidence that the Defendants conspired to conceal 15 evidence of the October 25, 2010, incident.

---

16
17
18 <sup>3</sup> While the suit in Farmer was founded on the Eighth Amendment, the "deliberate 19 indifference" standard also applies to pre-trial detention cases such as this matter.
20 Clouthier v. Cnty. of Contra Costa, 591 F.3d 1232, 1244 (9th Cir. 2010).

1           Given Plaintiff's previous suicide attempts and the fact that he was placed 2 on administrative suicide watch by the County jail, the Court concludes that 3 Defendants were aware of the substantial risk access to razor blades would present 4 to Plaintiff. See Grenning v. Miller-Stout, 739 F.3d 1235, 1239 (9th Cir. 2014)
5 ("Knowledge of a risk of harm can be inferred where that risk is 'obvious' . . .").
6 The Court also concludes that the provision of razor blades to Plaintiff would be an 7 unreasonable act indicating deliberate indifference to the substantial risk posed by 8 such an action, while Plaintiff was mentally unstable. The question before the 9 Court is whether, for each instance, Plaintiff has proven by a preponderance of the 10 evidence that a named Defendant provided him with a razor blade.

11           Plaintiff was not able to see who slid the razor blade under the door to his 12 padded cell on October 25, 2010. The area immediately around the cell was 13 secured from access by unsupervised inmates. Given that Plaintiff attempted 14 suicide with a razor blade while locked in a padded safety cell, the Court concludes 15 that it is likely a staff member violated Plaintiff's civil rights on this occasion.
16 Nevertheless, Plaintiff has not proven by a preponderance of evidence which staff 17 member is responsible for this act.

1 Plaintiff testified that he assumed it was Defendants Garcia and Alvarez 2 based upon Alvarez's comment, "Don't say nothing."<sup>4</sup> However, at this stage in 3 the proceedings, unlike at summary judgment, the Court is not required to make all 4 inferences in Plaintiff's favor. Ritchie, 451 F.3d at 1023. The Court cannot 5 reasonably infer from this single comment that Defendants Garcia and Alvarez 6 committed the alleged act either individually or by agreement together. Moreover, 7 these two Defendants were not the only people present outside of Plaintiff's cell on 8 that day, as Plaintiff testified that other, unidentified guards were also in the area.
9 The Court cannot conclude it is more likely than not that either Defendant Garcia 10 or Defendant Alvarez placed the razor blade in Plaintiff's cell. Given the Court's 11 findings, Plaintiff has not proven his § 1983 claim for the October 25, 2010 12 incident.

13 Plaintiff argues as a separate claim that Defendant Alvarez's comment, 14 combined with Defendant Harris's statement and the alleged lack of an 15

---

16 <sup>4</sup> Plaintiff's counsel argued that Defendant Swift's comments also evidenced 17 deliberate indifference. However, Swift was not present for the October 25, 2010 18 incident, and the Court will not impart any meaning from Swift's words upon the 19 actions of Defendants Garcia, Alvarez, and Harris. The Court evaluates Plaintiff's 20 case against Swift below.

1 investigation, implies that the Defendants conspired to violate his civil rights. To 2 succeed on § 1983 conspiracy claim, Plaintiff must show the existence of an 3 express or implied agreement to violate his constitutional rights and actual 4 deprivation of his rights resulting from that agreement. See Ting v. United States, 5 927 F.2d 1504, 1512 (9th Cir. 1991). “A conspiracy to deprive a plaintiff of a civil 6 rights action by lying or concealing evidence might constitute such an actionable 7 deprivation.” Id.

8 The Court cannot reasonably conclude from the ambiguous statements of 9 Defendants Alvarez and Harris that there was an agreement to conceal evidence.
10 In his argument, Plaintiff relies heavily on the alleged lack of an investigation to 11 support his conclusion. But, to the contrary, Plaintiff acknowledged that there 12 were in fact photos taken. It was Plaintiff’s burden to establish evidence, direct or 13 circumstantial, indicating there was a conspiracy. Plaintiff’s allegation, 14 unsupported by any evidence, that the incident was not properly investigated is not 15 sufficient to carry his burden. Plaintiff presented insufficient evidence to show 16 there was a conspiracy by any of the Defendants to violate his civil rights. With 17 this finding, Plaintiff has not proven by a preponderance of the evidence his § 1983 18 conspiracy claim.

19 As with the October 25, 2010 incident, Plaintiff has no direct evidence of 20 who placed the razor blades in his cell on May 26, 2011 or on March 6, 2012.

1 Plaintiff relies upon Defendant Swift's proximity to his cell on each occasion and 2 upon Defendant Swift's previous statements encouraging suicide to infer that 3 Defendant Swift put the razor blades in his cell. The Court cannot conclude from 4 this evidence alone that it is more likely than not that Defendant Swift is 5 responsible.

6 During the May 26, 2011 incident, Plaintiff did not see Defendant Swift near 7 his cell, but only heard someone kick the door. When Plaintiff looked out of his 8 cell, Swift was on the opposite side of the tier. Plaintiff did not testify about 9 anything Swift said that would indicate Swift knew about the razor blade when 10 Plaintiff handed it to a nurse. Unlike the October 25, 2010 incident, there was no 11 evidence presented that razors were not already present in Plaintiff's cell on May 12 26, 2011—for instance, in the possession of a cellmate or hidden away.

13 Similarly, during the March 6, 2012 incident, Plaintiff did not see Defendant 14 Swift place a razor blade in his cell. He merely concluded Swift did so because 15 Swift was checking cells at that approximate time. Again, there was no evidence 16 presented that razors were not present in Plaintiff's cell on that occasion prior to 17 Defendant Swift's proximity to the cell. Moreover, concededly, another officer 18 was also present on the cell block at that time, but Plaintiff surmised only Swift 19 was responsible for providing the razor.

1 Plaintiff failed to present sufficient evidence for the Court to conclude that it
2 is more likely than not that Defendant Swift placed the razor blades in Plaintiff's 3 cell. As the record stands, it is just as likely that the razor blades were in Plaintiff's 4 cell the entire time. The Court is not required to make inferences in Plaintiff's 5 favor at this juncture, and it declines to do so given the lack of evidence to support 6 Plaintiff's conclusions.

7 Further, the Court does not find that Plaintiff was able to fully and 8 accurately recount the events nor statements attributed to the Defendants. At the 9 time of the events, Plaintiff was heavily medicated and was variously suffering 10 from hallucinations. Understandably, Plaintiff could not testify from memory, 11 repeatedly read from his complaint to refresh his memory and to testify, and was 12 subject to numerous leading questions on direct. In light of the lack of evidence 13 presented to corroborate his claims and in light of Plaintiff's inability to reliably 14 observe and testify as to the events, the Court concludes that Plaintiff did not 15 establish by a preponderance of the evidence that any particular Defendant, 16 individually or by agreement, placed razor blades in his cell in deliberate 17 indifference to the substantial risk those items posed to Plaintiff or that any 18 Defendants agreed to conceal evidence of such actions. Given these findings, 19 Plaintiff cannot, as a matter of law, maintain his claims against Defendants.

20 //

Revocation of In Forma Pauperis Status

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3), “[a]n appeal may not be taken in forma pauperis if the trial court certifies in writing that it is not taken in good faith.” The good faith standard is an objective one, and good faith is demonstrated when an individual “seeks appellate review of any issue not frivolous.” See Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 445 (1962). For purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 1915, an appeal is frivolous if it lacks any arguable basis in law or fact. Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 325 (1989).

The Court finds that any appeal of this Order would not be taken in good faith and would lack any arguable basis in law or fact. Accordingly, the Court hereby revokes Plaintiff’s in forma pauperis status.

//

//

//

//

//

//

//

//

//

1 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

- 2 1. Defendants' oral Rule 52(c) motion is GRANTED. Based upon the 3 foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law, Defendants are entitled to 4 judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52(c).
5 2. Plaintiff's in forma pauperis status is REVOKED.

6 The District Court Executive is hereby directed to enter this Order, enter 7 JUDGMENT for Defendants on all claims, provide copies to counsel, and 8 CLOSE the file.

9 DATED March 25, 2015.

12
13
14
15
16
17

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Thomas O. Rice".

18
19
20

THOMAS O. RICE
United States District Judge